Hindsight Community

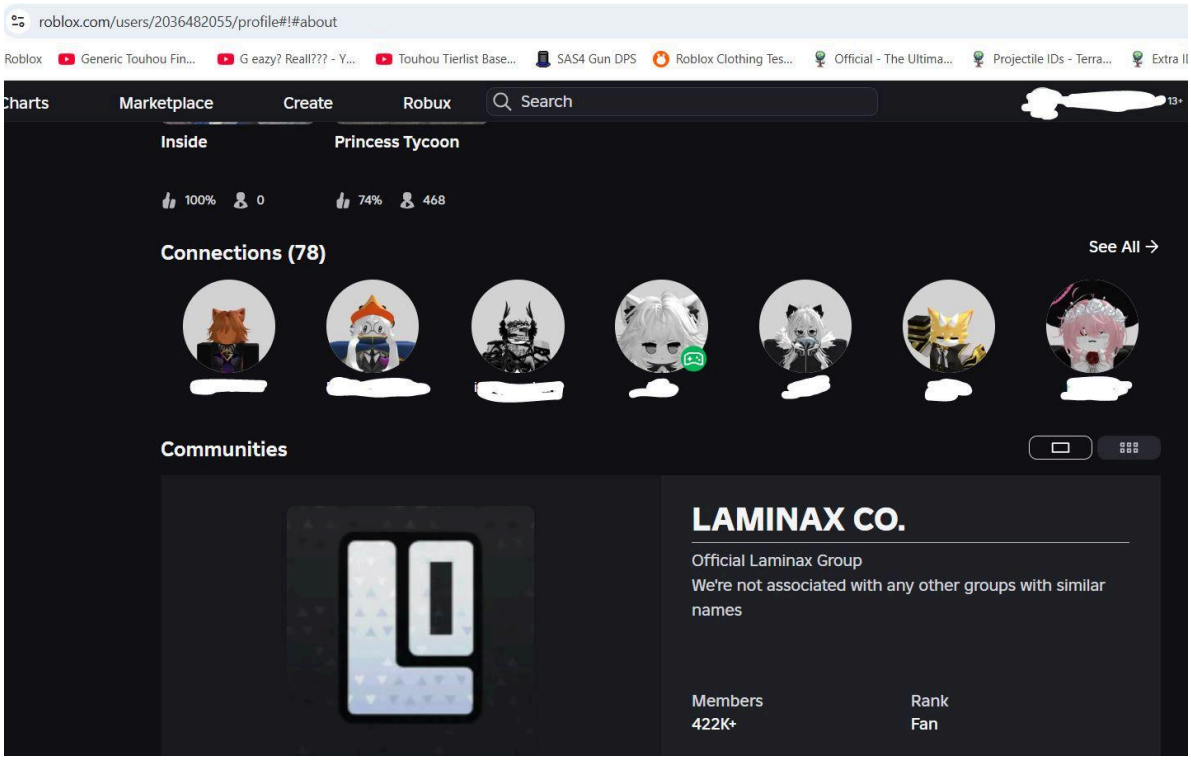
Be warned for the contents of this document, no punches will be pulled.

[On the very end of the document, usernames and user ids (Discord) will be provided]

This was written by hylexandj and abdasync.

TFE stands for The Final Experiment, associated with Kaiju Paradise.
Formerly I made a document covering Hindsight's main developer Bronze (CatteEnthusiast) and main administrator Arisu (whencatmeow/literalmous), and I might've not been thorough enough due to the fact I've been criticized for my bias towards the topic and mentioning any unneeded users. And this doubt cast by everyone made me rethink if this was a proper choice to keep up and I had purged the original document with requests from my former co-writer to not edit it again in the future.

However because the reception of the document was negative due to the lack of any proper lines when it comes to grooming, doubt has grown and Hindsight and Bronze have managed to resurface, with every member that is still an issue present as this is being written.
I originally held no grudge towards the current owner for keeping the group up, as people can play whatever they like, the issue is that they still let people as controversial as Bronze still around.
In addition, Bronze is still present in the TFE roblox group.



2036482055 is his ID on Roblox.

With newer information coming in as well as any point not touched on, I have taken it upon myself with better support to touch on why this group, and why Bronze's associates are deserving of any reparations for their actions within the community, former communities, or general group.

Hindsight is a dangerous community to persist in as these people grow older and older, soon people may become victims or involved or faced to leave a friend inside this community in the future if it is not addressed now.

Bronze

So, what's the deal with Bronze? Why is it that we should stay against him?
One of the first things to note is that Bronze has a diaper kink, despite saying it isn't otherwise, there are multiple instances of him mentioning soiling himself which shouldn't be a part of anyone's age regression whatsoever unless it's for some sick sense of gratification.

These are only a FEW examples, if I looked more in depth or had contacted other people, I'd find more.
To get the obvious out of the way, yes he talked to more than 1 person about this, and you can see where the issues start.
But to get the fluff out of the way, here are his numerous age regression commissions.

(Below is proof he commissioned a minor for his deluded fantasy.)

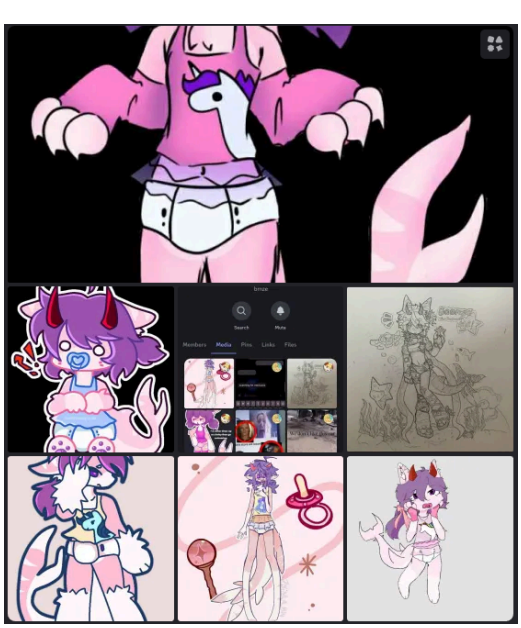
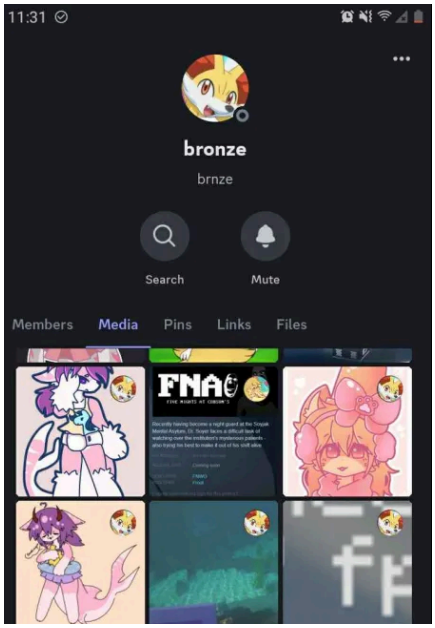
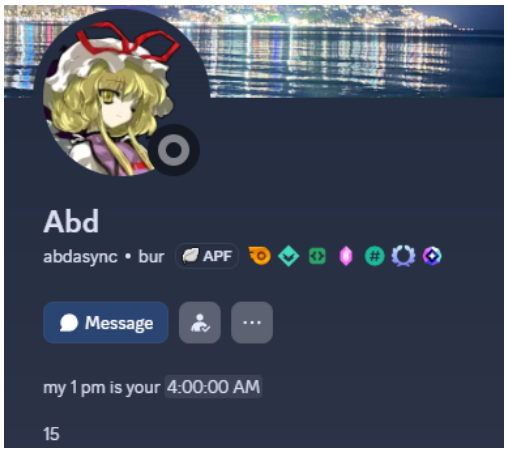
15 turning 16

(This is one of the few images that remain of this WIP, the artist was so uncomfortable with the mere idea of the age regression that they never completely finished this commission, stated in TFE’s Archived Art Discussion.)





And again with the second person present., we will now explain who this is.



This is Abd, a 15 year old from another community different to Kaiju Paradise or Hindsight. He was Bronze's friend from when bronze was 16, to when he was 17.

And throughout that friendship, Bronze projected his kink onto Abd in not so subtle fashion, to get him to be involved, starting from early 2024 when Abd was in a mentally vulnerable state due to a break-up he had gone through.

Hints of ageplay are present throughout these screenshots, be warned.

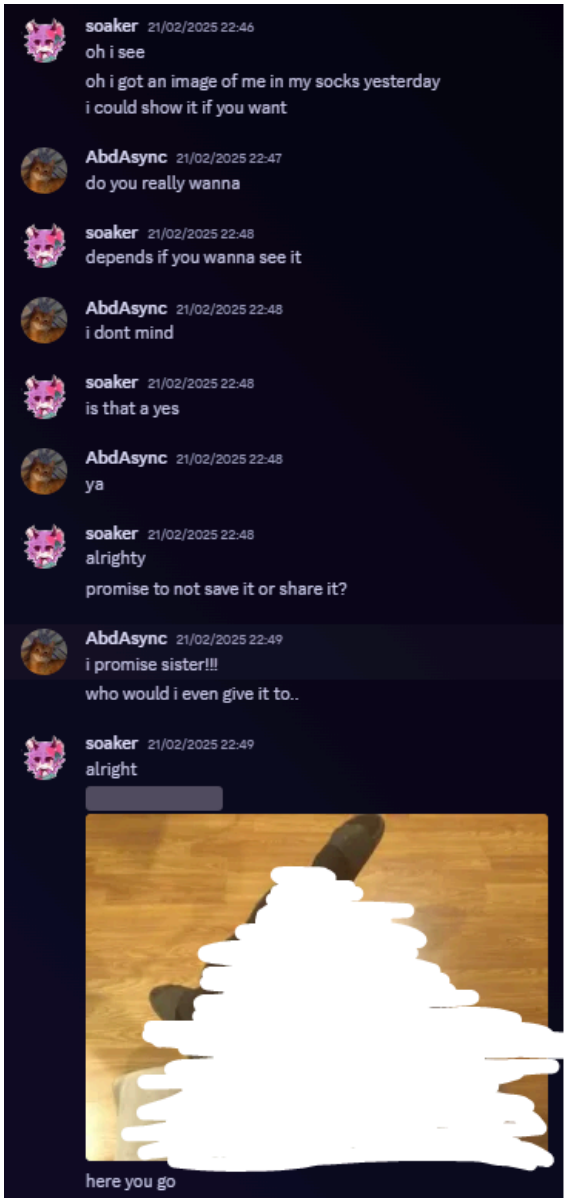
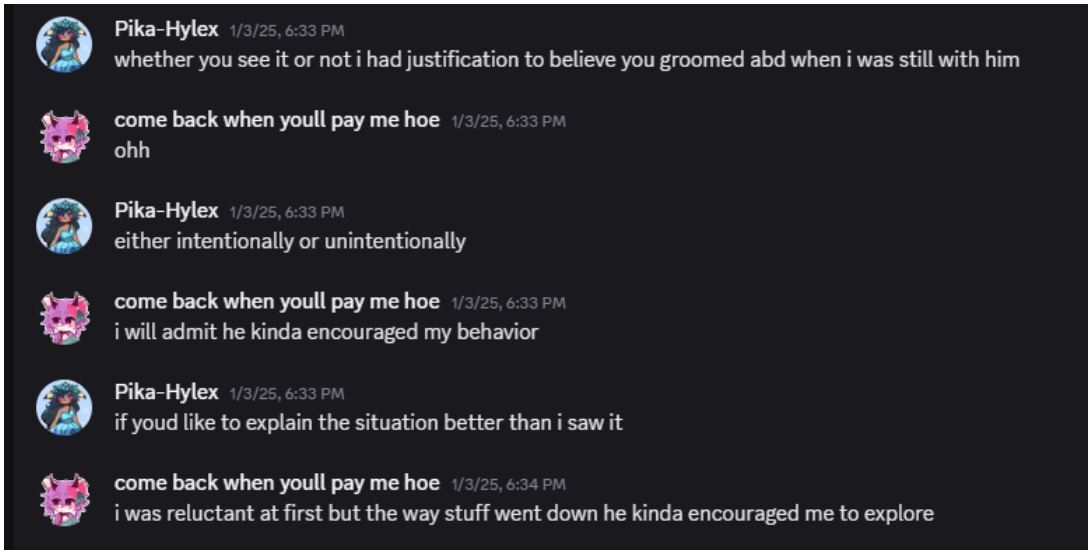
And the biggest kicker, the meat and bones for this being taken too far is Bronze sending his own thighs to someone who didn't know better and trusted him enough to not say no.



Marked out for obvious reasons.

Bronze had convinced an 14-15 year old to pay for a commission of his fetish after projecting said fetish onto that 14-15 year old for months on end up to a year, identifying as grooming for financial purposes already, but grooming for more deeper reasons as seen by his push for Abd to show himself in a position that'd be more attracting to him.

And before I had known more about this, I told Bronze what it appeared as even before.



Pika-Hylex 1/3/25, 6:33 PM

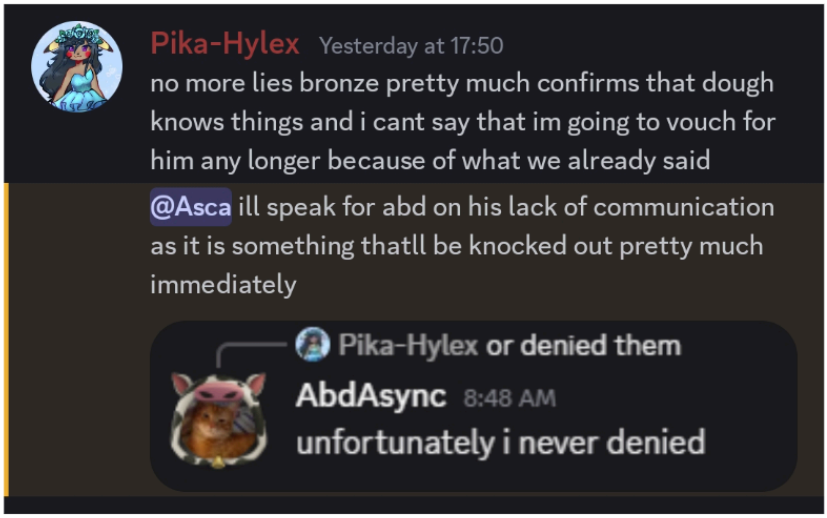
to each their own but to do that around children is kinda absurd

Some hypocrisy, suggestiveness (something you'll see Bronze is fond of) is just softcore NSFW.

An issue present is the “morality” in this situation is that Abd didn’t deny advances.



Pika-Hylex Yesterday at 17:50
no more lies bronze pretty much confirms that dough knows things and i cant say that im going to vouch for him any longer because of what we already said @Asca ill speak for abd on his lack of communication as it is something thatll be knocked out pretty much immediately
Pika-Hylex or denied them AbdAsync 8:48 AM unfortunately i never denied

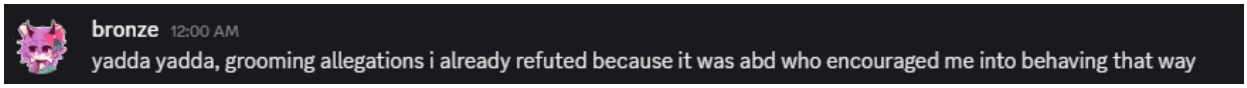
In Bronze’s view, we can assume he saw encouragement or acceptance, simply because he met no resistance. The fetish itself should be less of a focus right now. The way Bronze handled it is more impactful, and he handled it indeed badly.
(Going off from what was given to me.)



bronze 12:00 AM
yadda yadda, grooming allegations i already refuted because it was abd who encouraged me into behaving that way

But that view is flawed because grooming as a concept is taking advantage of someone who doesn’t know any better, Abd was always around ~2 years younger than bronze and has had less experience on the internet as a whole, he trusted Bronze while he pushed these things onto him and made him pay for a commission for his own gratification, as well as trusting him enough to allow him to send his own thighs to him, something Abd did not know better about, why say unfortunately in this case at all if that was not the case?

In addition to his grooming of Abd, during a situation we will get to, I was hospitalized with damage to multiple organs including my bladder, and during many discussions, I was mocked for my disability due to it aligning with Bronze’s kink fantasy.

Clearly at 16-17, you have to think to yourself if it's appropriate to send specifically your thighs to a 15 year old or mock someone who came to you for any sense of support because they are the ones able to indulge in your kink without actually wanting to.
From his own words he had told me I'm the reason for his diaper uprising, but again I was hospitalized, this was a medical issue not a kink I wanted to spend time doing, he wanted to have me as a source for his twisted fantasy just because I'm the "convenient" one.

Only allusions to said event but during my time with Arisu/Mous, she confirmed that he was already known for these types of suggestive actions.

Bronze has had a certain bias towards a certain ‘type’ of people, across his history from when he was working for KP and even now.
The earliest proof of this was former KP moderator Kay/Mewzle.

it's not exactly something i want to remember

For those in TFE who remember, Bronze was exposed for transphobia by Mewzle which started in SharkCo and went to TFE. Mewzle was a banned member from a group server I and many others were formerly in called “The Midnight Express”, their ban reason being sending their body to other people and sending censored pornographic art in the server. But when they were banned, Bronze had joined her little group and he had said something that Mewzle didn’t like which led to a chain reaction.

This is all pointless though right cause what is this proving?
Hold onto your seat.

This is a commission I managed to get from an artist in Bronze's older server Operation Coyote.
This artist is a known minor and what they draw is..

No

His reasoning is present here, after a discussion with Arisu/Mous. He believed that someone should have the opportunity to stay in his community to change despite still continuing to make NSFW art as evident by the dates the drawings are marked.

As well as keeping this artist in his community for a longer period because said artist had drawn fanart of him. (said fanart is lost media)

oh also yeah i forgot mous wanted me to tell you that the artist ended up making more kp porn (edited)

And this was his reaction despite that artist having made NSFW of MY oc on someone else's whim, mere involvement should've been enough for them to have gotten the boot.

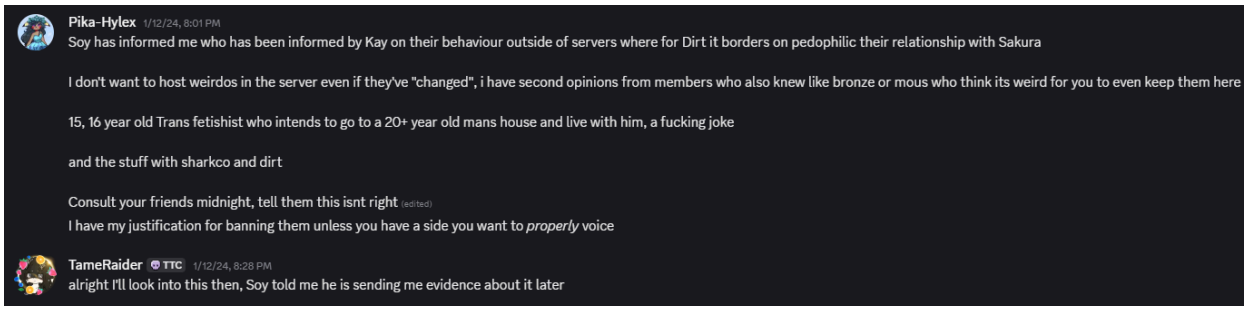
sakura is not well
neither is dirt



Pika-Hylex 1/12/24, 8:01 PM
Soy has informed me who has been informed by Kay on their behaviour outside of servers where for Dirt it borders on pedophilic their relationship with Sakura
I don't want to host weirdos in the server even if they've "changed", i have second opinions from members who also knew like bronze or mous who think its weird for you to even keep them here 15, 16 year old Trans fetishist who intends to go to a 20+ year old mans house and live with him, a fucking joke and the stuff with sharkco and dirt Consult your friends midnight, tell them this isnt right (edited)
I have my justification for banning them unless you have a side you want to properly voice TameRaider TTC 1/12/24, 8:28 PM
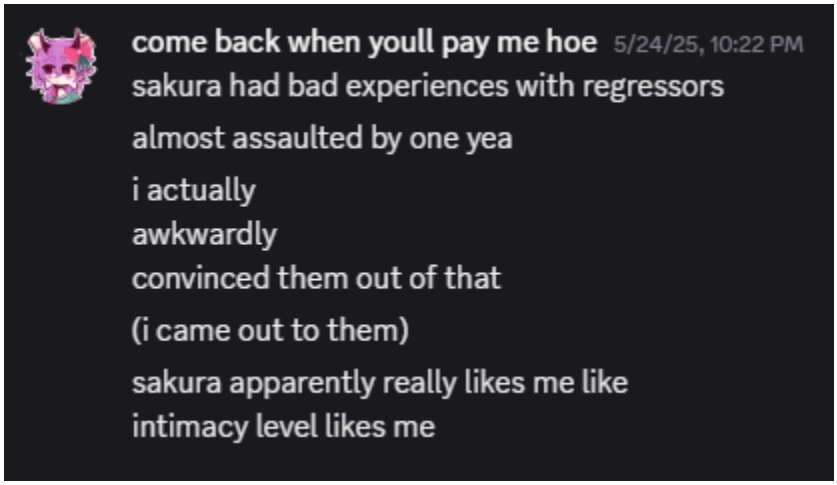
alright I'll look into this then, Soy told me he is sending me evidence about it later

For those who don't know, Sakura was a part of a poly relationship with 2 people, AJ and Depy, and in their server, were involved with an NSFW incident involving AJ and the creation of a Minor Drawn NSFW artwork of a minor while depicted in a 'cub' fashion.
AJ was removed from TGC for this issue but another person was still present.
Depy/Dirt was a 20 something year old who Sakura was attached to when Dirt was uncomfortable with them, however not uncomfortable enough as Dirt was exposed for the same NSFW actions by SharkCo and promptly banned along with Sakura.

Now what role does Sakura play in this?
Sakura had tried to chase Depy back and was also putting their hands in the NSFW artwork situation, being the publisher for said artwork on e621 before being blacklisted.
Knowing this was their explicit ban reason as well as their plans to move in with Dirt.
Now they might've been a victim but they chased someone older than them and still continued this sort of behavior with AJ after Sakura had left.



come back when youll pay me hoe 5/24/25, 10:22 PM
sakura had bad experiences with regressors almost assaulted by one yea i actually awkwardly convinced them out of that (i came out to them) sakura apparently really likes me like intimacy level likes me

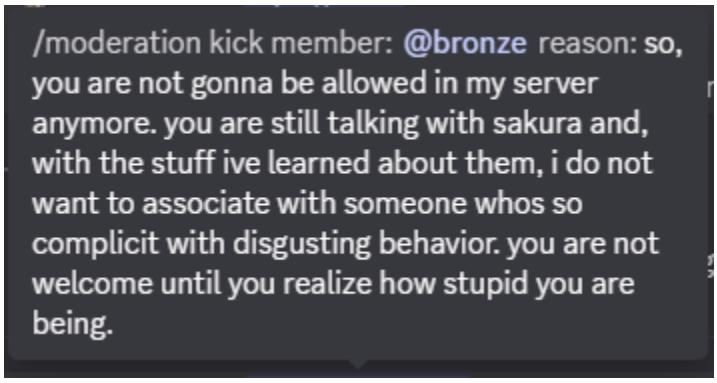
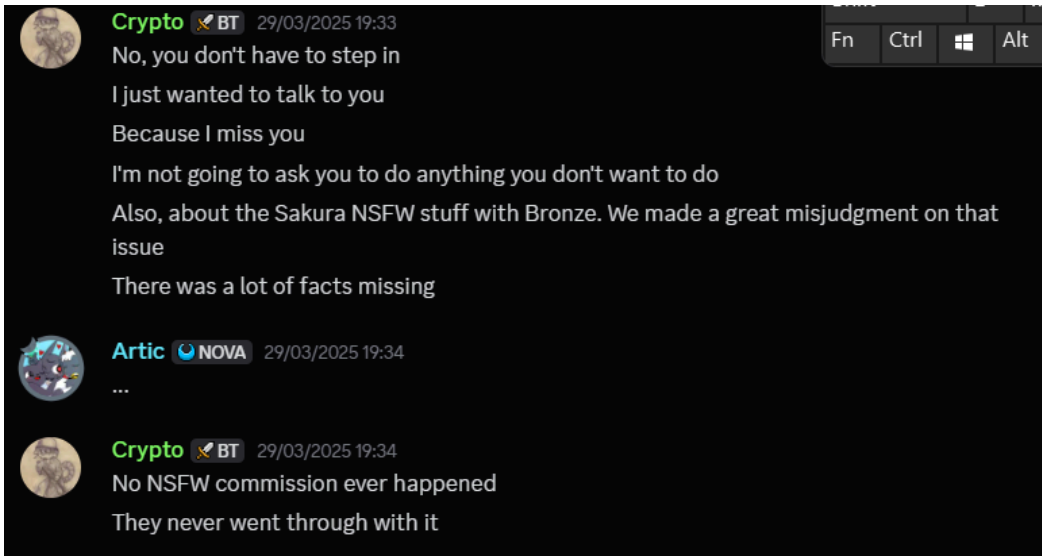
(Sakura's Art Style)

Bronze had befriended Sakura even after these events which is good for their growth but.. What growth? They still repeated those actions that they had tried in the past and it was responsible for bronze being banned in an alternate server for tolerating them.



/moderation kick member: @bronze reason: so, you are not gonna be allowed in my server anymore. you are still talking with sakura and, with the stuff ive learned about them, i do not want to associate with someone whos so complicit with disgusting behavior. you are not welcome until you realize how stupid you are being.



Crypto BT 29/03/2025 19:33
No, you don't have to step in
I just wanted to talk to you
Because I miss you
I'm not going to ask you to do anything you don't want to do
Also, about the Sakura NSFW stuff with Bronze. We made a great misjudgment on that issue
There was a lot of facts missing

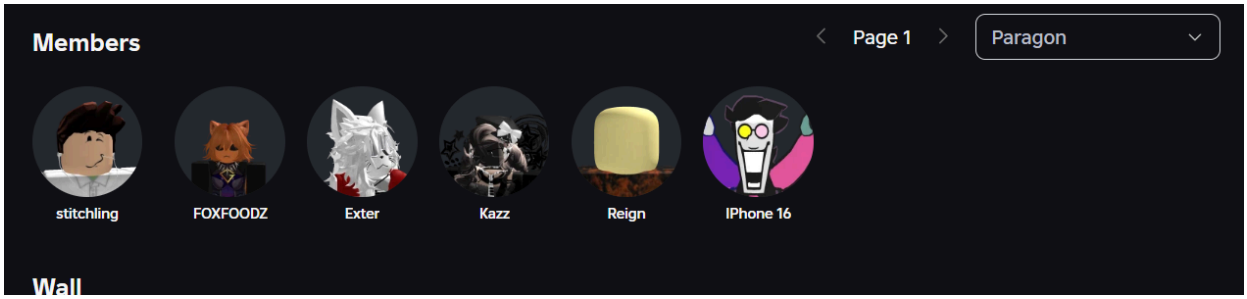
Crypto BT 29/03/2025 19:34
No NSFW commission ever happened
They never went through with it
Fn
Ctrl
Alt

And their community defends it and calls it a misunderstanding.
Crypto is their Main Admin and defended the said commissioning of porn just because it didn't go through.
If you have half a brain, you know intent was still present.

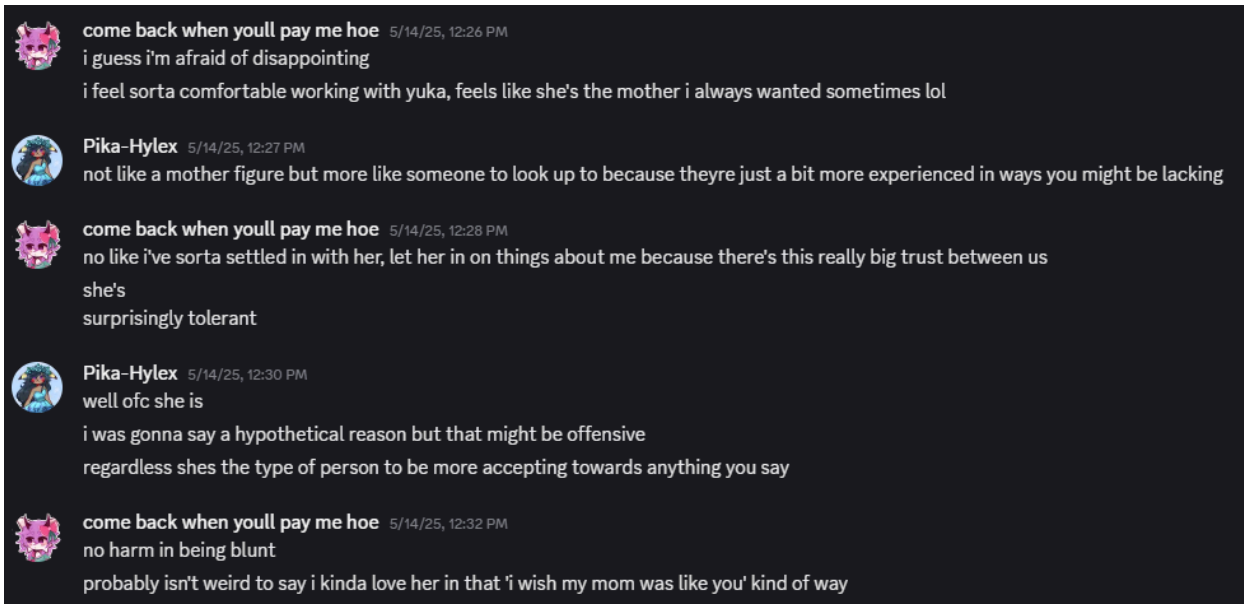


But even with this, people still support Sakura/Java despite continuously causing NSFW incidents ever since they were 15, now 18.
Note the current holder for Hindsight is present in their group.

Yuka

Yuka was known in TFE as another dev and also was removed for drawing inappropriate content when she was being pressured into it. That is the briefest coverage possible of her removal from TFE.

Yuka has enabled and defended Bronze's fetish and allowed him to refer to her as a motherly figure.



come back when youll pay me hoe 5/14/25, 12:26 PM
i guess i'm afraid of disappointing
i feel sorta comfortable working with yuka, feels like she's the mother i always wanted sometimes lol
Pika-Hylex 5/14/25, 12:27 PM
not like a mother figure but more like someone to look up to because theyre just a bit more experienced in ways you might be lacking
come back when youll pay me hoe 5/14/25, 12:28 PM
no like i've sorta settled in with her, let her in on things about me because there's this really big trust between us she's surprisingly tolerant Pika-Hylex 5/14/25, 12:30 PM
well ofc she is i was gonna say a hypothetical reason but that might be offensive regardless shes the type of person to be more accepting towards anything you say come back when youll pay me hoe 5/14/25, 12:32 PM
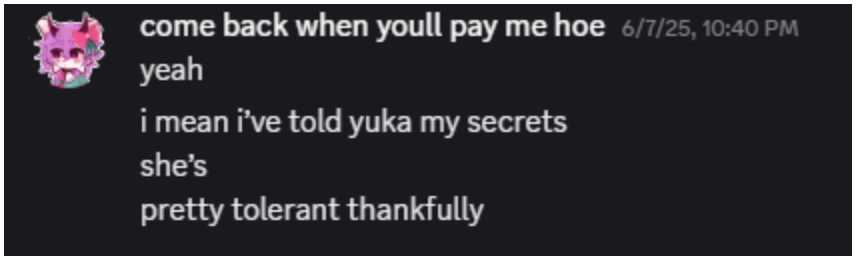
no harm in being blunt probably isn't weird to say i kinda love her in that 'i wish my mom was like you' kind of way



I made the mistake of being aggressive when the document first released but that's because Yuka defended the grooming of a minor by saying irrelevant quips about age regression being a coping mechanism despite Bronze literally making a younger person commit to ageplay.

But Yuka,

he commissioned me himself about it
what he means about diapers being different, with me is that he explained it in like a comfort fashion way while pacifiers and bottles are comfort items its a regression thing to wear i literally drew art for him and its just him baby mode the tamest shit
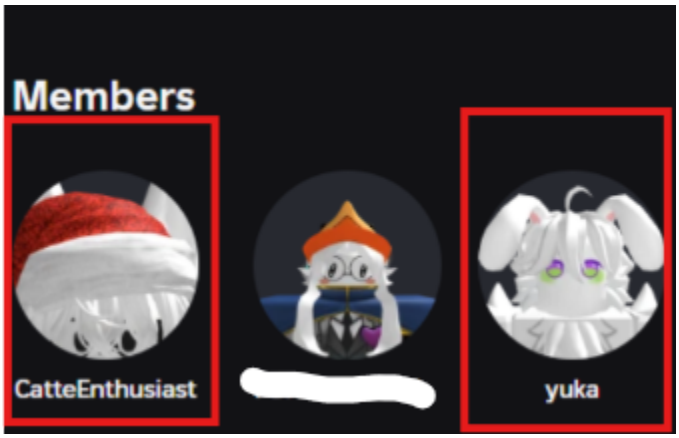
i can show you if you dont believe me
DOOM 11/07/2025 19:21
I meant the diapers not other stuff
yuka 11/07/2025 19:21
im talking about the diapers too

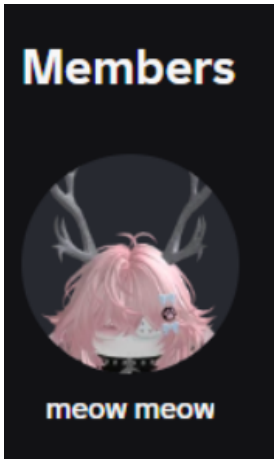
Actually got involved and drew it, which is not fine to participate with especially for 3 reasons.
1. A minor cannot consent and shouldn't be able to request art for their fetish (Again, referring to a disabled person as lucky for being able to enact this fantasy of his or involving urine at all makes it a fetish), Yuka should've turned down the commission.
2. Downplaying of the said topic by calling it tame when other people have cancelled said commission because it was just that disturbing.
3. Yuka was paid a ton of money for the KP designs so, even as a commission, this was solely because he asked for it instead of doing whatever gets you paid.

Her participation with these acts should be called into question as enabling is a form of grooming when multiple people have called into question the morality of said actions on several occasions.
Even after the release of the original document, downplaying it when there are a majority of people who agree this isn't right should say enough about said enabling.

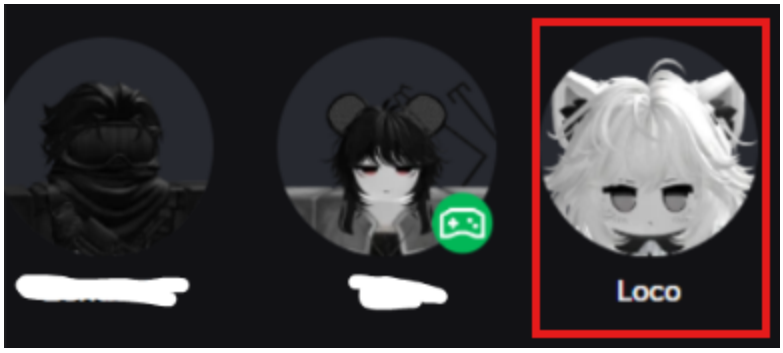
Now to take a moment, the reason this is relevant is that Hindsight has persisted even past this point and even grown while people actively knew it held groomers and controversial people.



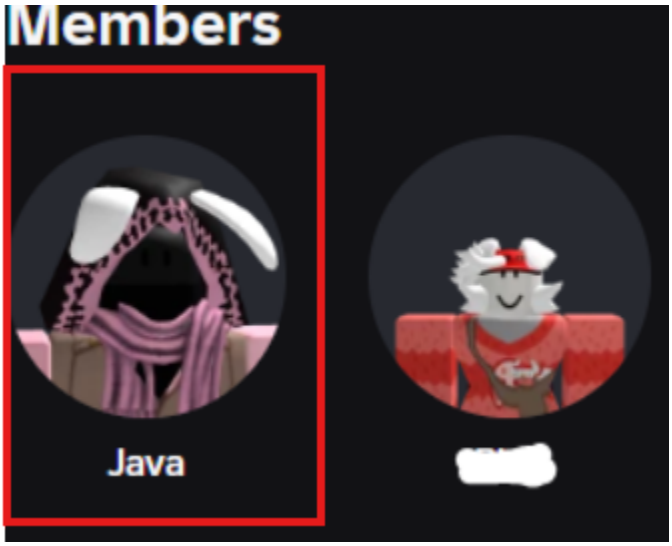
Bronze back after deleting his account, Yuka still present.



Arisu is still present.



Known Pedo still present.



Person who commissioned HS NSFW still present.

These were all taken only a week or two ago. Their community has allowed and kept in multiple people called out for their behavior, and allowed them to even thrive in their own side projects, rallying more people to become affected or associated with their activity.

To answer a question present at the 3rd image, sources are provided here.

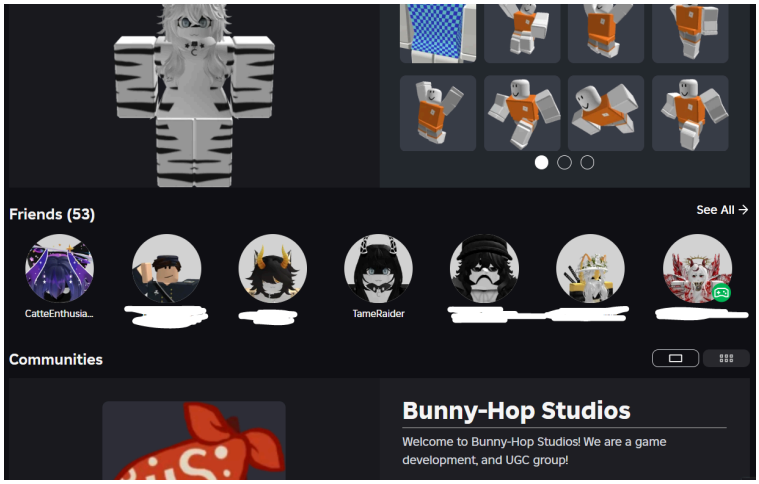
Loco a current moderator for Hindsight is a proven pedophile due to his attraction to minor while he has been an adult, I was told this by Arisu back in 2024 and it has been true on several occasions due to his showing of attraction for her while she was still an early teen.

And as of current he still lasts in a community full of people around that same age group that Arisu once was.



And him being there is not a mistake. (Taken around the middle of the year.)

As for Arisu themselves, it's a section most would prefer to be given the option of ignoring due to the topics involved.

Hindsight Moderator, Arisu/LiteralMous

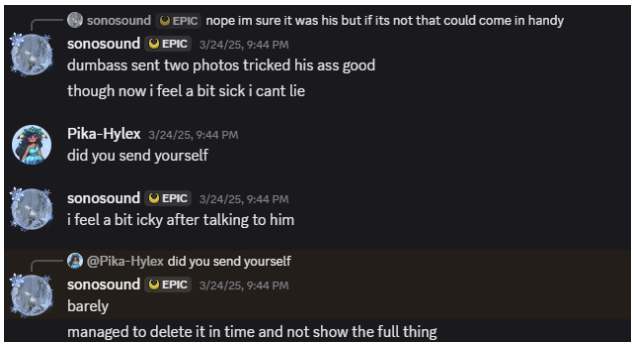
she played along once or twice haha

In the original iteration of this document I had mentioned sonosound/perfectiqn since she was close to Bronze and had attempted to send my ex-friend pictures of herself in order to bait him into getting arrested.



sonosound EPIC nope im sure it was his but if its not that could come in handy

Pika-Hylex 3/24/25, 9:49 PM
he said add him back and he can HUMANELY resolve this sonosound EPIC 3/24/25, 9:50 PM
oh well accounts as csem in his phone now ¯_(ツ)_/¯
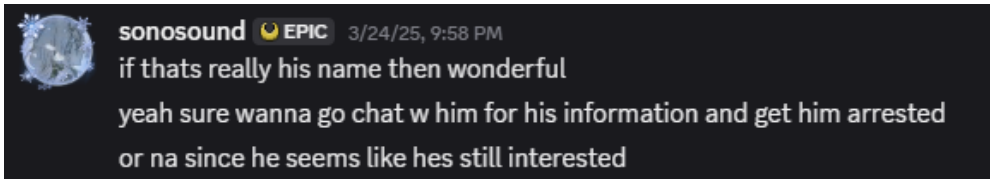
Despite him being willing to talk this out with her.



sonosound EPIC 3/24/25, 9:58 PM
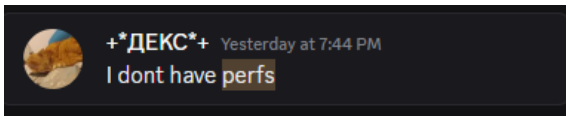
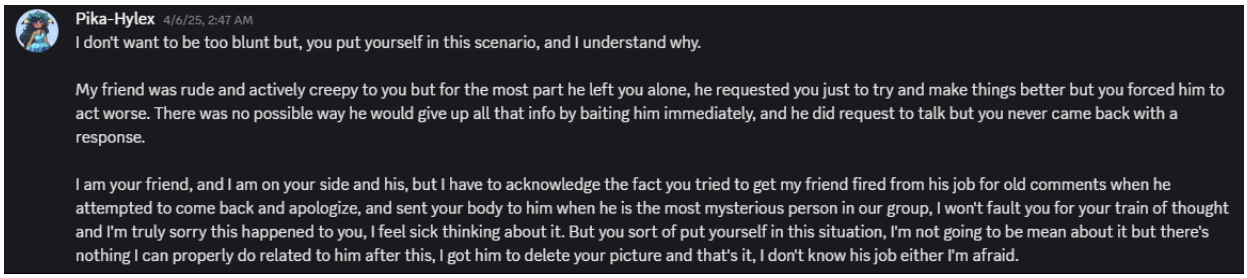
if thats really his name then wonderful yeah sure wanna go chat w him for his information and get him arrested or na since he seems like hes still interested
She still persisted.

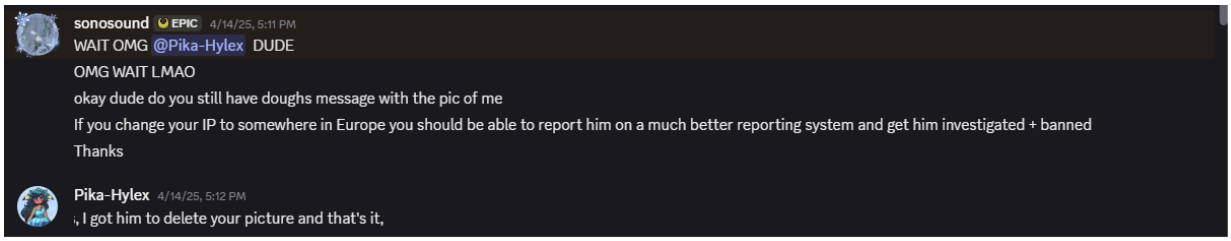
I want to make this clear, it was forwarded then deleted, my ex-friend had not saved Perfectiqn’s nudes whatsoever and I had scolded him for getting involved.



And told perfectiqn that she did this out of her own accord for a bad reason.



Pika-Hylex 4/6/25, 2:47 AM
I don't want to be too blunt but, you put yourself in this scenario, and I understand why.
My friend was rude and actively creepy to you but for the most part he left you alone, he requested you just to try and make things better but you forced him to act worse. There was no possible way he would give up all that info by baiting him immediately, and he did request to talk but you never came back with a response.
I am your friend, and I am on your side and his, but I have to acknowledge the fact you tried to get my friend fired from his job for old comments when he attempted to come back and apologize, and sent your body to him when he is the most mysterious person in our group, I won't fault you for your train of thought and I'm truly sorry this happened to you, I feel sick thinking about it. But you sort of put yourself in this situation, I'm not going to be mean about it but there's nothing I can properly do related to him after this, I got him to delete your picture and that's it, I don't know his job either I'm afraid.



sonosound EPIC 4/14/25, 5:11 PM
WAIT OMG @Pika-Hylex DUDE
OMG WAIT LMAO
okay dude do you still have doughs message with the pic of me
If you change your IP to somewhere in Europe you should be able to report him on a much better reporting system and get him investigated + banned
Thanks
Pika-Hylex 4/14/25, 5:12 PM
, I got him to delete your picture and that's it,

She still wanted me to get him arrested.
This issue as a whole is fucked up and I hated dealing with it but 2 things of note were needed to be mentioned.

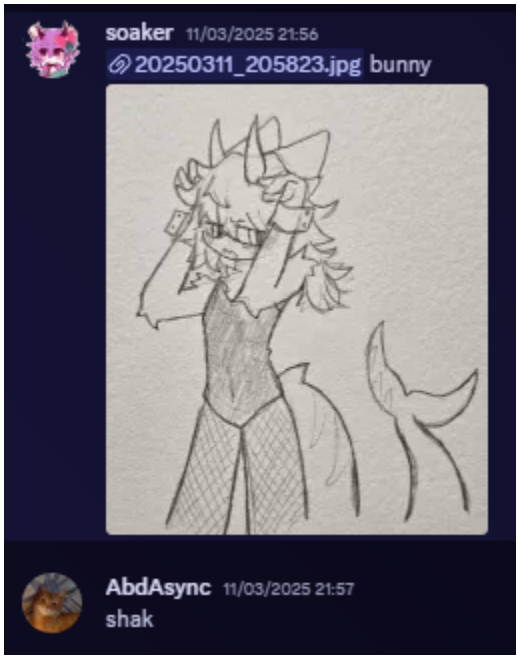
Not special needs

And two, people in HS thought Dough was older than he actually was since he graduated earlier than normal but he was just a part of a school program that allowed him to graduate earlier, his age is the same as mine, 16.

That covers this document, all mentions of Bronze associating himself with standardly suggestive content will be here, like the playboy bunny outfit or maid outfits.



bronze 5/24/25, 11:15 PM
in all honesty i've found contentness in being a maid this might stick

bronze 5/24/25, 11:12 PM
like maid outfits, thats why i've gotten so comfy with them now

bronze 5/24/25, 10:41 PM
i really don't wanna explain why i like being a maid

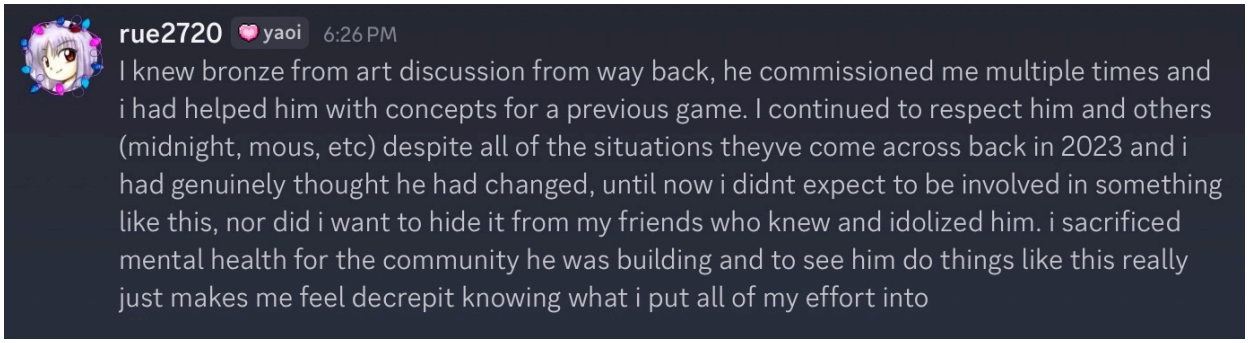
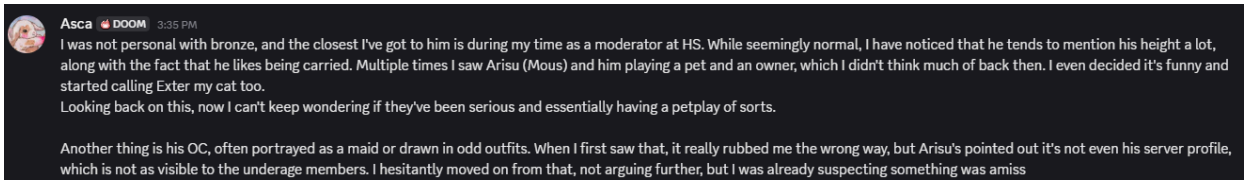
Additional statements



rue2720 yaoi 6:26 PM

I knew bronze from art discussion from way back, he commissioned me multiple times and i had helped him with concepts for a previous game. I continued to respect him and others (midnight, mous, etc) despite all of the situations theyve come across back in 2023 and i had genuinely thought he had changed, until now i didnt expect to be involved in something like this, nor did i want to hide it from my friends who knew and idolized him. i sacrificed mental health for the community he was building and to see him do things like this really just makes me feel decrepit knowing what i put all of my effort into



Asca DOOM 3:35 PM

I was not personal with bronze, and the closest I've got to him is during my time as a moderator at HS. While seemingly normal, I have noticed that he tends to mention his height a lot, along with the fact that he likes being carried. Multiple times I saw Arisu (Mous) and him playing a pet and an owner, which I didn't think much of back then. I even decided it's funny and started calling Exter my cat too.
Looking back on this, now I can't keep wondering if they've been serious and essentially having a petplay of sorts.

Another thing is his OC, often portrayed as a maid or drawn in odd outfits. When I first saw that, it really rubbed me the wrong way, but Arisu's pointed out it's not even his server profile, which is not as visible to the underage members. I hesitantly moved on from that, not arguing further, but I was already suspecting something was amiss
